Founders and Executives

Xiaofang Zhou North, Member, Director and President

Born in Beijing, Xiaofang was trained in hotel management and international relations, and served in the Jianguo Hotel, the first joint venture hotel in China in the mid-1980's, helping to open up Beijing and all of China.

She moved to America in the early 1990's and became a successful entrepreneur, founding a jade import-export business and operating a stylish retail establishment. She was also active in travel industry management, served as a member of the Governor's delegation from the State of Hawaii to China, and has organized complex diplomatic events with public figures in Beijing, Honolulu and Los Angeles.

She is a speaker, author, filmmaker, a co-founder of Asia-Pacific Group and of the Zhou Enlai Peace Institute.

Michael North, Member, Director and Chief Executive Officer

Michael North is the founder of North Communications, a leader in multimedia touchscreen networks. Together with key investor Metromedia and its principal, John Kluge, he was responsible for many innovations in the public access field, and operated hardware, software, services and network management divisions in hundreds of sites worldwide.

Clients and allies of North Communications included many leading companies: IBM, Microsoft, and BellSouth, and government organizations: Social Security Administration, the Cities of New York and Los Angeles, the States of California, Texas and others.

He is a co-founder of Asia-Pacific Group, and of the Zhou Enlai Peace Institute. More at <http://www.michael-north.com>

Roger Epstein, Member, Director and Chief Counsel

Mr. Epstein is the former chair of the Tax Department of Cades Schutte, the largest law firm in the State of Hawaii. He is an expert in International and U.S. domestic tax planning and litigation; in corporate and partnership structure, real estate law and financing, international estate planning, family trusts and litigation. He is an honors graduate of Georgetown Law School.

His experience in Asia dates back over forty years; he was one of the first American attorneys to visit mainland China in the early 1980's and today collaborates with major Judicial Districts and Bar Associations, including those in Shanghai and Suzhou. Mr. Epstein was a Tax Law Specialist with the National Office of the Internal Revenue Service in Washington, D.C.

Tobin Butcher, Member, Director and Vice President

Tobin Butcher is the founder and managing executive of Bridge Capital – a Seattle based financial company that provides foreign companies and high net worth clients with access to investment opportunities in the United States. Mr. Butcher has spent his career in finance working at both Citigroup and Goldman, Sachs & Co.

Mr. Butcher specializes in identifying opportunities, business structure, finance, and negotiation. He is an industry leader in the EB-5 Visa Program and has formed many Regional Centers around the United States. More at <http://www.bridgecapital.co>
